[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JULY 26.

EASTERN STATES.

Hendricks Renominated for President.

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.), July 25.—The Democratic State Central Committee at a meeting held here to-day adopted unanimously the following resolution:

Resolved, That we recognize in Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks the unanimous choice of the Democracy of Indiana for their candidate for the Presidency in 1872, and recommend that every honorable effort be made by our fellow citizens to secure his nomination and election.

Southern Indians.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Reports received at the Indian Bureau, state that the agent who was dispatched to Mexico in order to induce the return of the Kickapoos, says those Indians are near Santa Rosa in Cohuilla, and mentions as a singular fact that the Mexican commission had arrived at that place one week in advance of our agent and, his party, and had been issuing cattle and corn to the Kickapoos. The Mexicans are anxious to retain this tribe. The chief of our government in desiring the return of these Indians, and their location on the reservation, is to break up their depredations on the Texas frontier, in which they are encouraged by their Mexican friends.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Indian Bureau.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—General Parker to-day vacated his office as Commissioner of Indian Affairs. The clerks of the Bureau took formal leave of him.

Reports on the Crops.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Returns to the Department of Agriculture up to July 1st, show the acreage of sugar cane to be greater this year than last in South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Louisiana and Texas, the increase ranging from 5 to 15 per cent., while in Mississippi the acreage is 2 per cent., and in Missouri 20 per cent. less than last year. All the States, except Mississippi, report the crop in better condition than last year. The acreage of tobacco, New York shows 42 per cent. increase over last year; Illinois, 35; Pennsylvania, 27; Wisconsin, 20; Connecticut, 16; while Kentucky reports 13 per cent decrease; Virginia, 5; Tennessee, 7, and other Southern States do not vary much. The condition of crops generally is below average, except in Connecticut, Alabama and Texas.

The testimony of Thomas Hardeman, ex-member of Congress from Macon, Georgia, before the Ku Klux Committee, was very brief. He said he knew of no Ku Klux organization in his District, and had not heard of its existence there. Instead of colored persons being intimidated at the polls, colored persons had intimidated white persons and taken possession of the polls.

Supplies for the Arctic Expedition.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The United States steamer Congress sailed to-day for Baffin's Bay with supplies for the Arctic expedition.

CANADA.

Dispatch from Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Ontario, July 25.—The Times, a government paper, states on authority that neither John McDonald, nor any member of the Cabinet, have any idea of visiting England this year in reference to the Washington treaty.

Dispatch from Halifax.

HALIFAX, July 25.—The members of the Prince Edward Island Legislative Council and House of Assembly are opposed to the Government and the appointment of the Lieutenant Governor, asking that an extra session be called to consider the Washington treaty.

The Islander, the Government organ, says it semi-officially, that the request will not be acceded to; and with regard to the treaty, which is viewed with some favor, their export to the United States being fish and paper, the Islander says the United Government, by the action of the Governments of Great Britain and Canada, has taken measures to have the provisions of the treaty put in operation at once without waiting for the formal approval of the Legislature.

Advices from Labrador, via Newfoundland, do not confirm the reports of a disastrous storm there, which were recently published in the American papers.

CUBA.

The Insurrection.

HAVANA, July 26.—Alvarez and Hernandez, Cuban emissaries from Cespedes who were recently captured, were executed at Matanzas yesterday.

Ortess Molora, Minister of the Cuban Government, Quartermaster Aguilera, Ernesto Lores, Jose Guerra, Manuel Quesada and several members of the Revolution Court have formally surrendered to the Spaniards. Insurgent Hall, who surrendered at Manzanillo, is a Cuban and not an American, as has been reported. Felipe Augusto Bayes, companion of the late Cespedes, was captured recently at Cujo Cruz and brought to Porto Principe and executed. Col. Batabiala of the insurgent army has been killed.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

The Troubles in Amador County.

SUTTER CREEK, July 25—Four P. M.—There are still evidences of trouble ahead. The Amador mine is still held by the workmen under Superintendent Steinberger. No efforts have yet been made by leaguers to stop work.

JACKSON, July 25.—This evening at six o'clock four men of the Miners' League from Sutter Creek arrived here with the intention of killing Bennett, who is under the Sheriff's protection, and after walking down the street, Bennett who was near by in a livery stable came out and walked in front of the hotel. When he saw these men he started back for the stable. The four men jumped toward the stable and ordered Bennett to come out, saying he was a coward and afraid to show himself. Bennett at once jumped out before the leaguers with a pistol in each hand. The leaguers also drew pistols, but bystanders interfered. No shot was fired. Officers soon arrived and took Bennett out of sight and the difficulty ended. To-night a great many more leaguers from Sutter arrived and more trouble is anticipated.

SACRAMENTO, July 25.—A telegram from Sutter Creek at five P. M. states that Hatch is still alive.

CURRENT NOTES.

The man who this year pays the highest tax in Portsmouth, N. H., twenty years ago drove a charcoal cart into the city for his indigent father.

Mrs. Dahlgren is preparing for publication a memoir of her son Ulric, which the late Rear-Admiral Dahlgren nearly completed before his death.

Since Gen. Grant became President, the annual interest on the debt has been reduced $13,000,000. It is reduced more than $400,000 by payments of principal last month.

New Jersey is receiving the warmest commendation from the press and people in all parts of the country, because of the manly and decided course of her authorities in reference to the Orange demonstration.

Virginia papers say that the powder tanks found by the wreckers in the Confederate ironclad Richmond, now lying in thirty or forty feet of water off Chaffin's Bluff, are in good condition and the powder is dry and ready for use as before the submersion, six years ago.

The Democratic and Ring journals of New York, are quarreling over the question who is most to blame for the disturbances, the Mayor or the Governor? The public have formed an opinion on that point which cannot very easily be changed. The Mayor provoked the riot by encouraging an unruly mob to believe that they could control the city. Gov. Hoffman was the only man among the Tammany crowd who showed a spark of proper spirit, and his action came too late.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES.

Railroad Disaster in Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, July 26.—A terrible accident occurred at 6 P. M., yesterday, on the Toledo and Wabash railroad, sixteen miles from this city. A train of thirty cars heavily loaded with grain, going south, collided with a gravel train on which laborers were returning from work. Of these, six men were killed outright, and four others so severely injured that there is little hope of their recovery. Fully one half of the others are more or less injured, some seriously. The collision occurred on a short level and neither engineer was aware that the other train was on the track till it was too late to prevent the collision. The engineers and firemen jumped in time to save their lives. Both engines and a large number of cars were demolished.

New York Dispatches.

NEW YORK, July 26.—A private letter from Para of the 5th, says:

The cholera has assumed a malignant form at Para. Nearly every stranger in the city has died. The English Consul died a few days ago, and to-day his wife is dying. Brazilian physicians are losing nearly all their patients with fever. All strangers are liable to take the fever in Para, and nearly every Portuguese who emigrated to Para within the past six or eight months have died. Several steamers which lately arrived at New York from Para, have been quarantined in the lower bay, but the last steamer from Rio was permitted to reach her dock, though she had the fever on board.

A dispatch from Washington says information has been received that Catacazy, Russian Minister, will be recalled.

The horse disease is still making sad havoc among railroad horses of this city. A letter from Paris says an epidemic of a severe nature prevails among the horses of the Paris Cab Co. 200 have died within a few days.

A New Order of Hibernians.

NEW YORK, July 26.—The Independent Volunteers of the Ancient Order of Hibernia have called a meeting to be held next Saturday evening. This Society, in the words of the call, was formed on the 12th inst. in Hibernia Hall, by unanimous decision of all patriotic Irish soldiers present, and will be no delusion. The names of officers attached to the call are the same as those found on the paper taken from the person of [illegible] on the day of the riot.

Dispatches via London.

LONDON, July 26.—The latest development as to the Spanish Ministry, which has been in a state of chaos for some days, is that Senor Zorrilla announced to the Cortes yesterday, that members of the cabinet are all old progressists. This implies that the combination formed by Serrano has really failed to co-operate and that a new ministry formed entirely from the liberal element of Spanish politics, has been formed by Zarrilla.

The English Council at Tahiti announces that he has received and will forward to his Government the most heart-rending details of the famine in Kenia. Special dispatches from Constantinople say the famine in Persia is causing dreadful havoc. Deaths in the Province of Khorassan average 300 daily, and so great is the distress that dead bodies are devoured by the famished men, women and children, in some cases are killed to render the supply of food more abundant. The plague is also reported among the Persians. The British Government is completing to draw a military cordon along the border.

HONG KONG, July 25.—Disturbances have occurred in Canton. A British gunboat has been dispatched there to afford protection to English and other foreign residents.

Another Honor to Bismarck.

LONDON, July 26.—It is rumored that Bismarck is to be created Duke of Luxemburg.

The New Spanish Ministry.

MADRID, July 26.—The Zarelio Ministry is as follows: President, Castello; War, Cardaba; Justice, Rias; Finance, Gomez; Marine, Beranger; Public Works, Martinez; Foreign, Segnata; Colonies, Malcompo.

Arrangements are being made in Paris to welcome Andrew Johnson, who is expected at an early day.

Eighteen Communists will be tried together at the first sitting of the Court Martial.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.—The assertion, that the figures recently published by the Secretary of the Treasury showing the progressive income from the rental of the Islands of Alaska are fallacious as to the principal item exists only in imagination. It is true that Hutchinson, Kohl & Co. agree in their lease to pay Government 62½ cents per pelt for all the seal taken out. The oil is worth only 37½ cents in San Francisco, so they only skin the seal and let the oil go.

The new gas company is expending a large sum on their new works at the Potrero, and the rumor of sale to the old company is certainly unfounded.

Fears are entertained for the loss of the ship Horatio Harris, now [illegible] days out from New York, with a large cargo of railroad iron. She has not been spoken on this side of Cape Horn.

The detail of the Central Pacific Air Line Railroad from San Francisco to Red Bluff and beyond, are being made public. It is certain that no time will be lost in the construction of the line, and that Oregon and Eastern passengers will be brought through upon it, the Western Pacific track being used only for freight and way travel.

Judge Stanley has admitted Chinese testimony in a suit for debt, where a white man was a party. The suit was appealed from Justice Crocker's court, and a decision was rendered in favor of the Chinese.

Witnesses to-day testified that Dorsey, the witness against Shotlin White, got money from both the Democratic and Republican parties on a pledge of securing the vote of the Industrial Reformers, and was unanimously expelled from the Order. Other facts, even worse, came out.

This afternoon, at three o'clock, Mr. Hatch, the bookkeeper of the Amador mine, was shot by Bennett on him at Sutter Creek was dead. Nothing warranting the calling out of the military had occurred to-day.

Passed west at Ogden to-day, J. K. Gill and wife, of Salem, and F. A. Meyer of Portland.

Arrived—schooner W. H. Meyer, Newcastle Island.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.—Willie Graham, a little son of a man now in jail for an assault, was drowned at the corner of Mission and Market streets last night. The body has not been recovered.

Joseph B. Henriques, a Brazilian mulatto, was naturalized in the United States District Court to-day, Judge Hoffman presiding, in spite of a protest filed by John T. Doyle, Esq., who claimed that the naturalization was unconstitutional.

Thos. J. Harris, formerly of the United States Ordnance Department, was sent to the Insane Asylum to-day.

A stone column for the new U. S. Mint, twenty-nine feet long and fourteen feet and two inches in diameter, arrived from New Castle Island by schooner W. H. Meyer to-day.

Policeman Langdon, in bringing a prisoner to the calaboose this evening, fell on Kearney street and broke his leg.

The Democratic County Committee this evening determined to appoint full nominations at their Convention, without reference to the other Committees. They are now supposed to be engaged at the business.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

SUTTER CREEK, July 26.—Hugh McKenney who was shot by James Bennett, foreman of the Amador mine, expired at 12:20 to-day. Hatch, the bookkeeper of the Amador mine, supposed to have been accidentally shot by Bennett, is still living, but little hopes are entertained of his recovery. The Keystone mine has stopped working since Monday evening for want of water. Everything is harmonious at present.

PETALUMA, July 26.—The Republican ratification meeting this evening is one of the largest political gatherings ever assembled in Sonoma county. The Republican Club met Hon. Newton Booth at the depot at 6 o'clock and escorted him to the American Hotel, amid repeated cheers. Booth is now speaking in the theater, which is filled to overflowing, and will be followed by Eastman and others. The meeting is conceded to be much the largest indoor meeting ever assembled in Petaluma or in this county. Republicans are jubilant over the auspicious inauguration of the campaign.

JACKSON, July 26.—No further disturbances were made by the leaguers last night. All had left during the night for some place unknown. Both wounded men, McKenney and Hatch, died this evening.

NEVADA.

CARSON, July 26.—Benj. Ellsworth, a teamster and an old and respected citizen of Carson, was shot in the groin yesterday in Pine Nut valley, Douglas county, by Al Mexican named Edward Rodarigo. The wound proved was a rifle. Rodarigo, and another Mexican named Arbello, had a dispute about the title to a wood ranch, and that shot which took effect on Ellsworth was intended for Arbello. Ellsworth was in a critical condition at last accounts and the wound was believed to be fatal.

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 27, 1871.

A Freedmen's College.

At Atlanta (Ga.) a college has been founded for the education of the freedmen. It has now been in existence two years. Its cost, including land and buildings, is about $90,000. Young as this institution is, it has already accomplished much. It has practically demonstrated the fact that the colored race, though but yesterday in a state of slavery, is capable of great and rapid intellectual advancement.

We have proof of this in the report of the Board of Visitors, appointed by the State of Georgia, a copy of which has been furnished us. A majority of this Board are native Southerners and pronounced Democrats. Joseph E. Brown, Governor of the State during the war, Irwin Whiteaker, William M. Scroggs and W. A. Hemphill, all noted Democratic journalists, and other eminent citizens were upon the Board. The report of this Board speaks of the examination in these high terms:

At every step of the examination we were impressed with the fallacy of the popular idea (which, in common with thousands of others, a majority of the undersigned have heretofore entertained) that the members of the African race are not capable of a high grade of intellectual culture. The rigid tests to which the classes in Algebra and Geometry, and in Latin and Greek were subjected, unequivocally demonstrated that under judicious training, and persevering study, there are many members of the African race who can attain a high grade of intellectual culture. They proved that they can master intricate problems in mathematics, and fully comprehend the construction of different passages in the classics.

Classes were examined in history, ancient and modern English composition, arithmetic, algebra and geometry, Cæsar, Virgil and Cicero, Xenophon, Homer and the Greek Testament. Not only the manner in which the pupils bore the most rigid tests in the higher studies pursued by them, but their polite behavior, their modesty, of demeanor, their economy and neatness of dress, and above all their sense of moral obligations won the highest commendations. The Augusta Constitutionalist, a leading Democratic paper, whose editor, Mr. Hemphill, was one of the Board of Visitors, bears its testimony to the general excellence displayed.

The exercises of the Atlanta (colored) University during the present week have been exceedingly interesting, as they are something novel in this section of country. We were not prepared to believe what we witnessed. To see colored boys and girls between fourteen and eighteen years of age, reciting Greek and Latin, and demonstrating correctly problems in algebra and geometry, and seemingly understanding what they demonstrated, appear almost wonderful. Scores of the most proficient and advanced scholars, strange as it may seem, are genuine coal-black Africans.

Are not such results as this a splendid vindication of the principles of the great party to whom these blacks owe their freedom, and these schools their existence? That party may well stand by its measures and point to results.

The Origin of "Gerrymander."

Perhaps all of our readers do not know the origin of the word "Gerrymander." This word is one of the political terms current throughout the country, and its meaning, as all know, is the arranging of representative districts in such a way as to give one party or the other an advantage in the number of members in legislative bodies. Elbridge Gerry was a political follower of Thomas Jefferson. He was Governor of Massachusetts, and from a famous trick of his and his partisans in that State the term "Gerrymander" originated. We have this account from a chronicler of those times:

The man who first employed the term "Gerrymander" was Russell, a famous editor of the Boston Sentinel, Federalist organ; and an opponent of the scheme of Gerry's friends, the Democrats, to redistrict Essex county, in 1811. He had prepared a colored map in which the towns set up for a Democratic district extended along three sides of a square. Gilbert Stuart, the portrait painter, standing in Russell's office, had remarked that those scattered towns, from Salisbury around to Marblehead, took the shape of a dragon; and he added with a pencil, claws, wings and a head. "There," said Stuart, "that will do for a salamander."

Russell looked up, and added, bitterly, "Call it a Gerrymander."

At this time the Democrats had carried the Governorship for Gerry, and also, both houses of the Legislature, and they were unscrupulously anxious to elect the future United States Senator, by rapportioning the State even to the extent of cutting counties in half. Stuart's figure of the Gerrymander was handed all over the State, with descriptive particulars of a satirical turn.

The law which they passed broke up counties, violated all custom, and destroyed all local associations and connections. But Gov. Gerry, who was an unscrupulous politician, as most of the followers of Jefferson have ever been, approved the act, and by this means has passed into history as the great American Gerrymanderer. He was a signer of the Declaration of Independence and Vice President of the United States; but his name is more effectually perpetuated by the word "Gerrymander" than by any honorable distinction which he achieved.

Work on the Northern Pacific Railroad.

A few days ago the Alta California had an article on the progress on the Northern Pacific railroad, in which it is asserted that little is being done by the Company, and that at the present rate of progress many years must elapse before the road is completed. This statement does not do justice to the efforts of the Company. If already has six hundred miles of road in operation, which is more than the Central Union had three years after they began to build. From a gentleman who has means of knowing we learn that bonds of the Northern Pacific are now selling at the East at the rate of $50,000 a day, which would amount to $15,000,000 a year. The Chief Engineer is organizing an engineering corps to examine the routes through the mountains that divide the waters of the Missouri and Columbia rivers, and hopes to locate the route this year. Jay Cooke states that as the bonds are sold every dollar shall be applied to building the road as fast as possible. As soon as the most practicable route over the Rocky mountains is ascertained, the Company will commence building from the Columbia river in the vicinity of Wallula. Where the terminus will be on Puget Sound, depends in a great measure on the route fixed upon for passing the Rocky mountains. Next year will probably witness greater apparent results in the construction of the road, as the preliminary work now being done does not show to so great advantage.

The Savannah (Ga.) Republican (Dem.) adduces John Quincy Adams' statement that "no cause is worth a civil war," as proof of its assertion that what the Northern Democrats lack is backbone. And it says: "Whether this sentiment proceeds from a lack of physical courage—sheer cowardice—or from a higher morality and conscientious scruples against war, it is all the same practically: it is an open confession that the people are without resentment, and will content themselves with a mere protest against any outrage that may be put upon them. How Massachusetts blood has thinned and degenerated since the days of '76! Heaven deliver the country from such patriotism as this!"

About a dozen views of Oregon scenery have been executed by Mr. Edmund T. Coleman for Dr. Loryea's book on Oregon, which will shortly be published. These views are mostly new, and will greatly adorn the pages of the book.

Under Johnson it cost $8,387,973 per annum to collect internal revenue. Under Grant it costs $5,916,410. A handsome difference.

OREGON.

There are 397 school children in Baker county. The amount paid to teachers in the county during the past year has been $2,582.

The Wallowa valley is situated about 23 miles east of Grand Ronde. The valley is between 25 and 30 miles in length, averaging four in width. It has been surveyed and settlers are flocking in.

Maj. Barnhart, of Umatilla county, grades his wool, and the result is that for his best fleeces he gets a higher price than if he sold the whole in bulk together. Here is a hint which other wool growers might profit by.

THE TERRITORIES.

Kalama has five physicians.

The publisher of the Olympia Tribune has been appointed Printer for Washington Territory.

There is a great scarcity of flour in Montana, and the price has gone up to $15 per hundred.

The stream of travel from the Columbia river to the Sound is increasing, and some days several extra coaches are put on.

Port Townsend is in want of water, but has whisky plenty. The nearest supply of water to the "terminus" is eight miles.

The Northern Democracy.

A VIRGINIA VIEW OF THEIR HOPELESS DIVISION—WHAT IS THOUGHT OF TAMMANY'S FOURTH OF JULY MEETING.

(From the Petersburg (Va.) Index, July 7.)

At the Tammany celebration of the Fourth, more than one noteworthy feature appeared. Gov. Hoffman was not present, but a letter was read wherein he rather gave the go-by to the new departure. A letter from George B. McClellan heartily indorsed it; and one from Montgomery Blair ignored it, falling back on denunciations of the "sordid moneyed class", from whose influence in the administration flow, in his view, our evils. Whatever this division portends we do not know; what it does not portend every man knows—it promises no success. The fact is, the Northern Democracy does not know its own mind. It is in a transition state; it is split into a hundred sections, each following a leader. Every individual section, almost every man has his chosen man, the mass has not united on an idea. We, of Virginia, care nothing for the man, we are definitely resolved upon the idea, and that is the difference between us. Why? Because we have always sustained our beliefs, we have been consistent and fought to the bitter end on a principle, when war was war. Accepting the fact of peace, we accepted all the facts in its train, among them the truth that the Constitution is no longer what it was, but still is the law which, amendments and all, we must and do submit to accept and fulfill.

In other words the new departure is not new to us. We struck the first note of the air to which the country begins to march on it. We keep in accord, one with another. We know the tune.

This unity has enabled us to see clearly what else must form subject of discussion, and to perceive that in settling the one question we have only taken a preliminary step. Does nothing more remain? Enough for the wisest of men and of parties; how best to supplant odious tariffs by just and moderate imposts; how to free the administration of affairs of its manifold corruptions; how to restrict the growing tendency of centralization; how to bring back the old and pure idea of constitutional limitation and well-ordered freedom; how to cleanse the civil service and furnish it a basis honorable to the country and useful in its service; how to meet the growing demands of labor, and fairly to hold the balance between the hand that wields the tool—such are the mighty problems which we are called upon to solve. Shall we who have pondered them, be absent when the council his held, and leave them to the men of the North, whose chief or only care seems to be whether to take for leader Mr. A. or Mr. B. or Mr. C.?

Another Commune.

The New York Herald of the 13th thus graphically describes the behavior of the rioters:

One who saw any of the scenes of yesterday as they are described in the Herald to-day could not fail to be impressed with the peculiar behavior, attitude and appearance of the men who took part in the disturbances. They were sullen and arrogant by turns, and by turns they were cowardly and courageous. They seemed without leaders and without a motive. Plunder was not their object, for they refrained from theft. Only a powerful impulse to murder men who wanted to celebrate the victory of one English king over another on the soil of Ireland impelled them, and this in their eyes seemed sufficient cause for breaking the law and defying the authority of the State. Are they the dangerous classes or are they something more terrible than the dangerous classes—the Communs of New York? They certainly behaved like the Paris Commune. There was the same blind indifference to life or death, the same madness of enthusiasm, the same purposeless searching after a purpose. And the aspects of the city were much like those of Paris during the recent conflicts in that proud capital. Had there been anywhere a statue of the Duke of York, who once owned the city, they might have bowed down to it if they had known it as the effigy of their beaten king. A figure of the Prince of Orange would have been for them a Column Vendome, to be torn to pieces, as the Parisians broke into fragments the bronze form of the great Napoleon. But, as it was, they could only gnash their teeth in the faces of those whom they chose to regard as their enemies and throw themselves upon the citizen soldiery, who are their surest protection and the best safeguards of Republican liberty.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO BY TELEGRAPH TO ASIA.—The necessity of laying a telegraph cable from the Pacific coast of the United States to some part of the Russian Pacific possessions, is rapidly making itself felt. Mr. Tietgen, Director of the Danish Great Northern China and Japan Extension Telegraph Company, has lately thrown some light on this interesting subject. He says that the line between China and Japan is now open, with every prospect of being much used. It is something to make note, that the number of telegrams sent to China last year, from Denmark, Sweden, and Norway, was 140,000. Now, if those countries find need for such extensive commercial communication with the Orient, what must be the need of those United States? It is not sufficient to transmit or receive dispatches from or to China and Japan per Atlantic telegraph cable; the thing is too costly, requires too much time and is entirely too roundabout. The Russian Government has shown anxiety to be directly connected with ours by telegraph under the Pacific. China is not behind hand in the matter. The former has given great facilities to the company represented by Mr. Tietgen for extending the line to Vladivostok, the new Russian naval station on the Pacific, and which is opened only two months in the year. The Japanese authorities have viewed the matter with so much favor that a telegraphic cable has been brought to Nagasaki, and telegraphic communication will be held between all Japanese ports opened to foreign nations. The telegraph operators that were sent to China have acquired the language so well that they now send and receive telegrams in Chinese characters. With all these advantages already in our favor, there can be but little difficulty in establishing direct telegraphic communication with Europe and the Orient from the Pacific side of our continent. —S. F. Commercial Herald.

REMARKABLE CURE OF MRS. HOOVER.

TUALATIN PLAINS, WASHINGTON CO., OREGON, July 22, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA—I have been troubled with Rheumatism for the past twelve years; my joints, especially those of my feet and hands, were badly swollen, so that I could with difficulty go around. My shoulder joined me a great deal and a large bony swelling grew out, so that I could not raise my hand to my head.

Since last spring I have been taking your "Buk Wood Remedy," and find myself much improved. The swelling and pain has left my joints and shoulder and the bony grower has entirely disappeared and I can use my limbs and am far better than I have been for years.

PLANTATION BITTERS

This Wonderful Vegetable Restorative is prepared from pure St. Croix Rum and Calisaya Bark, known the world over as possessing wonderful tonic properties. As a Tonic and Cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Just the thing for the morning lassitude and depression of spirits caused by late hours and what is called fashionable dissipation.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Of all the appetizers it is the most infallible, and the impetus which it imparts to the digestive functions soon puts Dyspepsia to flight.

PLANTATION BITTERS

It is the foremost remedy of the age. The spirit-proof of every species of debility, general or local, constitutional or casual.

PLANTATION BITTERS

A wine glassful taken half an hour before breakfast, dinner or supper, quickens the flow of the gastric juice, and thereby provokes hunger.

PLANTATION BITTERS

By its use I dispose of three good square meals per day, with a good relish, have no pains and have gained sixteen pounds in eight weeks. Sleep well, and consider myself a healthy man."

PLANTATION BITTERS

Taken moderately, three times a day, will give you strength, health and a cheerful and contented disposition.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Will give rest and quiet to those who cannot sleep, from unsatisfactory condition of their nerves.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Will restore tone and vigor—just the thing for mothers nursing.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Ye ladies, they excel one of all medicines—dressing symptoms to ten weeks and you had better follow my example.

PLANTATION BITTERS

If you want pure, rich and electrical blood—blood that gives tone to the system, the "rose tint of health" to the cheek—try it.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Thousands of families in Ohio and Mississippi valley, and on the borders of the southern rivers and swamps, will not be without one.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Which is the cheapest? A dollar bottle of Plantation Bitters, or a physician at two dollars a visit?

PLANTATION BITTERS

"The value of such an antidote cannot be expressed in words."

PLANTATION BITTERS

Will restore the vital energy, repair indigestion, and correct the sluggish circulation of the blood.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Is an unequalled invigorating cordial for the aged as well as for the young.

PLANTATION BITTERS

Is unsurpassed for weak and delicate persons, on their requiring a gentle stimulant.

PLANTATION BITTERS

"I began taking your Bitters the next day; and am perfectly happy to tell you that they have completely restored my health, strength and cheerfulness."

PLANTATION BITTERS

"I find nothing so good for headache and languor to which my daughters are at times subject. It gives them splendid appetite, and they eat like pigs."

PLANTATION BITTERS

"By advice of my physician, soon after my baby was born I commenced taking them, and they have done me so much good."

PLANTATION BITTERS

Are sold everywhere.

CAR SCALES.—The Oregon and California Railroad Company are preparing to place in the upper end of their wharf at Clinton's Point, a large weighing apparatus which has capacity to weigh fifty tons. It will be so set in the wharf as to allow cars to be run upon it by a switch from the several tracks. The machinery itself weighs several tons, being about the biggest style of scales ever manufactured.

BUSINESS INCREASING.—The business of the North Portland ferryboat has largely increased within the last month or two. It is now no uncommon thing to see from six to ten or twelve wagons, trucks and drays, on board at a single crossing. There were ten at one trip yesterday. The boat has carried twelve wagons of the above descriptions at once, more than half of them loaded. We learn that the owners intend to build another boat during the present year.

WAGONS FOR THE INTERIOR.—A statement was made not long since of the number of wagons shipped by a single house in this city, during the present season. The number was astonishing. Yet, as large as is the number previously sold, there are many still going, daily, up the valley. We saw, yesterday, six of the "Bains" standing at the railroad depot at Clinton's Point waiting shipment by the cars for the Willamette valley.

CRASH.—The R. H. ferryboat yesterday towed the John L. Stephens from Clinton's Point dock to the steamship dock on this side. The wind blew rather fresh, so that the ferryboat could not get up against it to turn the steamer's head. The consequence was that the steamer ran her bowsprit into the roof of the dock, crushing it as if it were no more than set up a shell.

SERIOUS CUT WITH AN AX.—A brakeman on the Oregon and California Railroad, named Brown, received a very severe cut in the foot, yesterday forenoon, at Milwaukie, by a log rolling upon it. The wound bled so profusely that it became necessary to bring him down to East Portland on a detached locomotive, for treatment.

LADDERS STILL WANTED.—Mr. Montgomery, contractor on the Kalama section of the N. P. R. R., informs us that he has not yet obtained near so many hands as he wants. Kalama wants (immediately) a large number of teamsters, and scraper holders, and will employ all the men who may apply, at Kalama.

FROM CHINA VIA PORTLAND TO SAN FRANCISCO.—Nearly half the freight of the steamer Constantine for San Francisco, was China goods out of the bark Goodell. The indications are that Portland will become the distributing point on this side, for China goods.

SNOW PEOPLE.—Mad. Forrestelle and the Nickerson Minstrels were at Victoria last Friday and Saturday evenings. The circus was announced for the same evenings.

PERSONAL.—Gov. E. S. Salomon, of Washington Territory, arrived at this city Thursday evening from Olympia, and will remain here a day or two.

CITY.

A LIVELY TIME WITH AN INSANE MAN.—Sheriff Bills had decidedly a lively and rather exciting experience with an insane man yesterday—a man named Lamonge, who has an insane fancy that somebody is trying to poison him, though he could tell who. He has been going around, hunting for the person, as he says, with the intention of shooting him. Mr. Bills arrested him and got him into his buggy, but he jumped out two or three times while on the way to the Court House. Arrived at the Court House, the man made a rush out of the buggy, over the seat, and ran right off at his speed down Fourth street. Mr. Bills had to chase him a long way down before he overtook him again, and when he did overhaul him the man drew a six-shooter. Fortunately Mr. Bills was quick enough to seize the man's hand before he could fire. He then overpowered him and took him back to the Court House, and afterward lodged him in the Asylum at East Portland. Lamonge had been in the Asylum once before on account of this same sort of insanity.

LIGHT FREIGHTS.—Each of the steamers of yesterday carried away very small freights—the Eliza, in fact, of the season. There was not a pound of flour taken away on either ship, except among the ship's stores. Freights will hereafter continue to be light, till the harvest and threshing season shall be over. We do not know of a merchant mill now running, except it may be now and then one, which runs a part of the time on custom. The stock of flour in the State is smaller than ever before at the beginning of harvest. There is not either, any grain of consequence to be disposed of. The bulk of the crop, to be sold out of the State, has already been sent away, and there remains, therefore, very little of anything of the staples to be shipped.

PASSENGERS FOR CALIFORNIA.—The N. P. T. Co.'s steamship John L. Stephens, Bolles, Commander, sailed at seven o'clock last evening for San Francisco, taking the following list of passengers: A F Campbell, John N Turpin, H Greenfield, Paul Trammility, Joseph Copeland, V Jones, N Beck, Charles T Wilkinson, N Pratt, Geo Beatty, W A Dolliver, John Morrow and wife, H Combs, Major J Bunch, U S A, C B Upton, Mrs J E Green, Mrs Levy and infant, Miss J Scriggs, N A Hirstel, Jacob Mayer, Joseph Teal, L Craft, Dr S Parker, S McClellan, Mrs E H Hall, D H Knapp and wife, Mrs H J Dorman, Geo Phelps, Mrs Knox and four children, Miss Ada Meyer, Thos Kelly and wife, L H Bushel, W Hilden, John Vandestick, Jos R Whitaker, J Wade, S Lyons, Miss Julia Watts, Mr Monroe, J Graham, T B Jackson, Ah Pine, Wong Wai, W E & Co's messenger, and 36 in the steerage.

The opposition steamship Constantine, Thorne, Commander, sailed at the same time for the same port, taking the following list of passengers: Miss E Cardinell, Miss E W Jeans, J Jeans, wife and five children, Miss A F Simons, J Vogel, Mrs H McGiven, N Solomon, N M Nash, P Durham, John McClellan, W C Dibble, T F Hammond, H P Hanson, Mrs Hadlock, Mrs Fellows and child, J McAvoy, E Borleon, J Bennett, B E Stewart, T W Harris, wife and 2 children, J Parks, T Benjamin, Chas Stone, Jas Murdock, D Taylor, and 21 others.

ROLLER SKATING.—This exhilarating and fascinating amusement seems to have gone like the fever or influenza, all over the country. They make now everywhere, and no town amounts much that hasn't got one. They have one at Salem, and, by the way, the Colonist in speaking of it, takes occasion to speak in complimentary terms of the skating & some of our leading ladies thusly: "The skating rink yesterday afternoon presented an animated and gay scene. A number of young ladies from Portland, Oregon, were present and took part in the skating, adding to the interest and delight of the occasion by the grace and poetry of their movements."

LEFT FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—Hutchinson, Kohl & Co.'s steamer Constantine, took away last night the following freight for San Francisco: 97 hides, 1 bale deer skins, 1 bale hides, 6 bales furs, 25 elk skins, 24 bales wool, 5 bales hops, 117 bundles hoops, 15 box cork, 181 boxes fruit, merchandise, 17 bxs eggs, 12 bxs cheese, 2 pkgs merchandise.

The N. P. T. Co.'s steamer John L. Stephens, took the following: 24 bales sheep skins, 13 bales merchandise, 109 bales wool, 6 cases bacon, 7 bxs eggs, 5 bbls lard, 12 sks bungs, 6 bbls butter, 4 bbls skins, 53 hides, 1 bale deer skins, 267 bags oats, 1 cs mdse, 250 bbls linseed oil.

RAILROAD SURVEY.—The Selwyn party of engineers, who recently left this city for Victoria to explore the explorations for the Dominion railroad railway, were to start on Monday last in San Westminister, and thence by Barnard's express to the end of the stage route, whence they will proceed to explore the country to the Tete Jaune Cache, in the Rocky Mountains for a practical route. The party numbers fifty men, and the party which preceded them a few days numbered fourteen.

STREET REPAIRS.—Street Commissioner Marshall has inaugurated a general repairing of streets and sidewalks. The broken places in the macadam pavement on Front and First streets are being repaired, and defective planks in sidewalks are being substituted by new ones. Altogether, we are already beginning to see the benefits of having a Commissioner who devotes his entire time to his official duties.

CITY SCALES.—The Oregon and California Railroad Company are preparing to place in the upper end of their wharf at Clinton's Point, a huge weighing apparatus which has capacity to weigh fifty tons. It will be so set in the wharf as to allow cars to be run upon it by a switch from the several tracks. The machinery itself weighs several tons, being about the biggest style of scales now manufactured.

BUSINESS INCREASING.—The business of the North Portland ferryboat has largely increased within the last month or two. It is now no uncommon thing to see from six to ten or twelve wagons, trucks and drays, on board at a single crossing. There were ten at one trip yesterday. The boat has carried twelve vehicles of the above description at once, more than half of them loaded. We learn that the owners intend to build another boat during the present season.

WAGONS FOR THE INTERIOR.—A statement was made not long since of the number of wagons shipped by a single house in this city during the present season. The number was astonishing. Yet, as large as is the number previously sold, there are many still going; daily, up the valley. We saw, yesterday, six of the "Balna" standing at the railroad depot at Clinton's Point waiting shipment by the cars for the Wallamet valley.

GRASS.—The R. R. ferryboat yesterday towed the John L. Stephens across from Clinton's Point dock to the steamship dock on this side. The wind blew rather fresh, so that the ferryboat could not get up against it to turn the steamer's bow. The consequence was that the steamer ran her bowsprit into the roof of the dock, crushing it as if it were no more than egg an shell.

SERIOUS CUT WITH AN AX.—A brakeman on the Oregon and California Railroad, named Snow, received a very severe cut in the foot, yesterday forenoon, at Milwaukie, by letting an ax fall upon it. The wound bled so profusely that it became necessary to bring him down to East Portland on a detached locomotive, for treatment.

BARGEMEN STILL WANTED.—Mr. Montgomery, contractor on the Kalama section of the N. P. R. R., informs us that he has not yet obtained near as many hands as he wants. He still wants (immediately) a large number of teamsters and scraper holders, and will employ all the men who may apply, at Kalama.

PERSONAL.—Gov. E. S. Salomon, of Washington Territory, arrived at this city Tuesday evening from Olympia, and will remain here a day or two.

A Fortious Season.
Glorious and delightful as the Summer weather is, its tropical heat is a severe trial to the vital powers. Even the strongest are sometimes prostrated by its effects. The common phrase applied to this condition of the body is "general debility." Now, general debility arises from, and includes a variety of ailments. The liver is more or less affected, the bowels are either constipated or too much relaxed, the stomach but half performs the work of digestion, the appetite is poor and the spirits depressed. This is what is called general debility. It is a general derangement of all the physical functions, and requires as a remedy a medicine that will regulate them all. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is specially adapted to this purpose. Its general operation is not confined to a single organ. If the liver is affected, it restores its tone. If the stomach is torpid, it reinvigorates it. If the nerves are fractious and weak, it braces and reinforces them. If the mind, which ever sympathizes with the body, is gloomy and despondent, it relieves the difficulty, and soon brings the whole mechanism of the body into harmony with the laws of health.

There is no civilized nation in the Western Hemisphere in which the utility of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a tonic, corrective and anibilious medicine, is not known and appreciated. Throughout the Tropics it is considered both by the people and the profession, the standard specific. While it is a medicine for all seasons and all climates, it is especially suited to the complaints generated by the weather, being the purest and best vegetable stimulant in the world.

Beware of the Bitters made of acrid and dangerous materials, which unscrupulous parties are endeavoring to foist upon the people. Their name is legion, and the public has no guarantee that they are not poisonous. Adhere to the tried remedy, Hostetter's Bitters, sold only in glass, and never in kegs or barrels.

Another Visitor's Views of Oregon.

The following paragraphs are from a letter written from this city by a tourist to the San Francisco Bulletin:

OREGON A HEALTHY STATE.

The Surgeon-General of the army in his statistics of mortality, reports to the Government that the deaths in Oregon from fever and other causes, are so few, to the number of the population, as any State in the Union. The winters are mild by the absence of almost any frost or snow. The rose and other flowers bloom in the open air in December. The heat of summer is much modified by the ocean breeze and the delightful cooling winds that come from Mount Hood and Mount St. Helens. These mountains are of great magnitude, are covered with perpetual snow and constitute great reservoirs for supplying the springs, fountains, rivers and lakes of the State with the best of water during the summer. Mount Hood and Mount St. Helens, by the constant and never failing waters that they supply, and the cooling, refreshing wind they impart, are the two invigorating air that they impart, are the two great physicians of the State that keep the inhabitants in a good average state of health, that other States may well envy. Let it then go forth as an established fact upon the best evidence and the most ample experience, that Oregon is one of the healthiest States of the Union. There is more sickness and disease in the New York Hospital in one year than there is in the entire State of Oregon during the same period.

PORTLAND A GROWING COMMERCIAL CITY.

Portland has all the elements of a great commercial city and centre of trade. The city is laid out with great taste, the streets are wide, kept in good order, and lined with ample trees that afford shade and beauty; the private residences of the rich are numerous, extensive and elegant; the houses of the middle classes down to the humblest, are attractive, comfortable and neat, and all them are surrounded with gardens containing flowers, a shrubbery and fruit trees in profusion. A perpetual green moets the eye at every point. The bank buildings, wholesale stores, and the principal retail stores, are substantial, extensive and elegant; they will bear favorable comparison, with any city of the size in the Union. The public institutions of all kinds are on a similar scale, are adequate to the wants of the place, and are constantly growing with the growth of the city. The business on the river, at the wharfs, in the stores, on the streets, indicate a busy life and great activity, and the appearance of the leading business men convinces the observer, that intelligence and energy are the forces that move and direct this busy life in its constantly enlarging field of labor and profitable results.

The railway system, under the guiding and energizing spirit of Mr. Holladay, is stimulating and developing trade and commerce, agriculture and real estate, emigration and industry, in a manner and to an extent hitherto unknown in the State.

Portland has, in all these respects, advanced more during the last three years than during the previous fifteen years. And the past three years are but a slight indication of its future growth and progress, development and prosperity. The population of Portland at present does not exceed 10,000; ten years hence it will reach 50,000, and it would be no exaggeration to anticipate 75,000 in that time. First, second and third class houses and stores are going up so rapidly that the lumber market, with all its great extent, can scarcely supply the demand. The same is true of East Portland, so far as private residences are concerned. East portland is to Portland what Oakland is to San Francisco. Mr. Holladay has shown his wisdom, foresight and business capacity in buying there what is known as "Holladay's Addition," for which he paid $65,000. His taste in laying out the town, his vast improvements and stimulus he has given to East Portland by providing places for superior private residences is worthy of all praise for which he will be amply repaid.

POWER AND THE MANUFACTURES.

Portland is a place of beauty as well as of intelligence, industry, wealth and enterprise. In the rear of the city is a crescent of hills that are being cleared of their superabundant timber. One of these hills, known as Carter's Addition, is being rapidly improved and highly cultivated. It will be laid out in beautiful streets, squares, avenues and parks, and offered for sale. The names of the principal avenues indicate the beauty of the place—such as Crescent Drive, Lookout Drive and Summit Drive. This will be another of the charming places for private residences connected with the city. It will be reached by a fine road, winding up the hill. From the top, a natural view is seen of the city, the river and valley of the Willamet, for miles. Mount Hood and Mount St. Helens, with their crowns of everlasting snow, come into full view, filling the atmosphere with a coolness and freshness these summer days that is most invigorating and delicious. The Messrs. Carter intend selling this hill and the adjacent grounds Mount Park. Equally splendid views are seen from the other parts of this range of hill, known as Robinson's. The soil is wonderfully rich up to the highest point, and capable of the highest cultivation.

Five years hence these ranges of hills will be covered with gentlemen's residences and ornamented to the highest degree. There is little doubt but in the time stated, both sides of the Willamet river, front and rear of Portland, will be a world-wide residence that will be distinguished for size and finish, highly cultivated and ornamented grounds, that will be difficult to excel.

But of all the views of Portland that I have yet seen, Marquam's Hill—Judge Marquam is the proprietor—excels. In a direct line it is only about two miles from the city, but being more than 1,000 feet above the level of the river, it can only be reached by a winding road through a dense wood, making the trip three miles long. A friend and I walked the distance in an hour. The road is pretty good, the wood is thick with birds, squirrels and rabbits, wild flowers, such as the syringa or mock orange, and the currant, with their rich bloom and delightful perfume, are in abundance; the fine timber, the endless variety of evergreen firs, and the luxuriant grasses are things of beauty and wonder as a stranger for the first time winds his way to the summit. When the highest point is reached, a landscape of surpassing beauty passes before the eye, that fills the mind with wonder and admiration. The mountain scenery, the deep canons or gorges, the vast forest, the perpetual verdue, the beautiful Wallamet river, and the magnificent valley of the same name, with the noble Columbia river in the distance, and the glorious Mount Hood, Mount St. Helens, and Mount Adams in the background, with their crowns of everlasting snow, form a sight that angels might admire. It is no wonder that the inhabitants of Portland should be a people of taste and refinement, energetic and progressive, living in the midst of such scenes of natural beauty that are so calculated to inspire the mind and invigorate the body. They would be entitled to universal censure if they were not inspired with certain hope as to the future growth, wealth and progress of State, and with corresponding energy and determination to realize the fulness and greatness of this hope. On the opposite side of Marquam's Hill, is a magnificent view of Washington and other counties which the eye can take in for fully twenty miles west and the same distance north and south. By the time I write your next, I expect to pass through this favorite agricultural county when I will be in a position to give you an intelligent and reliable account of its soil and productions.

LITTLE WOMEN.—Three little girls were playing among the poppies and sagebrush of the back yard. Two of them were "making believe" keep house, a little way apart, as near neighbors might. At last one was overheard saying to the youngest of the lot, "Now, then, Nelly, you go over to Sarah's house, and stop there a little while, and talk as fast as ever you can, and then you come back and tell me what she says about me, and then I'll talk about her; and then you will go and tell her all I say, and then we'll get as mad as horsets and won't speak when we meet, just as our mothers do, you know; and that will be such fun, won't it?" Hadn't these little mischiefs lived to some purpose? and were they not close observers and apt scholars, charmingly trained for the chief business of life in a small neighborhood?

Incredible Power of a Storm.

TERRIBLE STORM IN NEBRASKA IMMENSE DESTRUCTION—A TRAIN BLOWN FROM THE TRACK—HOUSES DESTROYED AND PEOPLE KILLED.

The telegraphic reports in no way exaggerated the tremendous force of the storm which recently devasted a portion of Nebraska. In the country near Omoha serious mischief was done. A number of people were killed and a vast quantity of property destroyed. The house of a farmer, J. B. Jester, was lifted bodily from its foundation by a furious blast and whirled through the air five rods or more, stunning and bruising the frightened inmates. In the same town, nearly every house was unroofed, the wind tearing the roofs off like pasteboard. For miles the fine corn fields and wheat fields have been ruined. Says the Omaha Herald:

A procession following the corpse of Lewis P. Thompson was overtaken by the tempest about four miles west of this city. Mr. Ireland was one of the first to see it coming, and, being a strong man, he jumped out, hoping to be able to hold the carriage to the ground. But his efforts were fruitless, the vehicle being twisted out of his grasp and overturned. Nearly every team was lifted bodily from the ground. A carriage, in which Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Ireland, Mrs. Scott, and other near relatives of the deceased, were riding, was capsized. The hearse ran down into a hollow, where shelter was afforded. One lady was taken up from the ground and carried a distance of 20 feet in the air before she could regain her feet. The men could not stand up, but were thrown about at the mercy of the wind.

The afternoon train on the Fremont and Elkhorn Valley Railroad was struck by the storm, between Scribner and Crowell, and the three coaches were lifted from the track, thrown down the embankment, and turned up side down in the ditch. One side of the engine was lifted eight inches from the track, but the coupling broke, and it fell back again. Nearly every passenger was more or less injured. But one mile from the wreck of the train, the house of Nathan Austin was picked up by the wind, carried about 100 feet, and torn completely into pieces. Mr. Austin was crushed to death in the wreck by falling timbers. His daughter escaped with her life, though she was severely injured. The Union Pacific train, which had drawn up to the water tank at Long Pine, was backed away from the building when the approach of the storm was noticed, and not a moment too soon, for the windmill and building fell immediately afterward with a fearful crash. As the storm swept about the train, shaking it tremendously, the employes of the Company hurried through toward the sleeping cars, which were considered the safest from being the heaviest, and they said that the passengers were nearly all on their knees praying for mercy, for not one expected to escape alive. Immense hail stones fell at this point, and a dispatch received from there said that none was smaller than coffee cups. One was found that actually measured 12 inches in circumference. In the city 12 houses were blown down and destroyed. The roof was torn from the back side of the depot; the kitchen of the hotel was blown down; the telegraph poles were torn from the ground; a box freight car, standing on a side track, was demolished; the frame was blown down an embankment, and the truck was taken up by an opposite current of wind and thrown on the main track; piles of lumber were whirled in every direction. The operator telegraphed that a woman was picked up by the wind and carried a quarter of a mile at the rate of a thousand miles a minute. A gentleman named E. Phelps, living near Lone Tree, was killed, his daughter fatally injured, and every member of his family more or less bruised. The storm there continued about ten minutes, and its track was about ten miles in width; within that limit, every field of grain was entirely destroyed. At Blair, the Sioux City and Pacific round house was blown down, and the watchman, with his son, narrowly escaped from the ruins with their lives. Mr. Bouton's house, about one mile from the town, was torn to pieces, but fortunately no person was injured. The loss in buildings and crops, which is immense, cannot now be estimated, and it is probable that further loss of human life will be reported.
